GodCraft Vacation Bible School—NEXT SUNDAY

Sunday - Wednesday June 19-22 6PM - 8PM—One week from today. Creation - Relation - Salvation! This Vacation Bible School (VBS) is an event for the whole family and friends. Our theme is from "MineCraft", but with an emphasis on God's creation and design, our relationship with him, and salvation through his son, Jesus. Join us for a free cookout for the whole family on Sunday, June 19th at 6:00 pm! Come and see the Science booths on Sunday, June 19th that demonstrate God's design! We need ALL members of our church to attend and help or meet and visit with our guests. This will show our loving spirit to the children who attend and their parents. We have posted an update on jobs still needing to be filled at the welcome center. We will begin setup at 3pm Sunday afternoon, and will need all hands on deck for setup and tear down. Many jobs have been filled but there are several available. Some jobs needed are: setup, people to man booths, registration, leader helpers, craft helper, snack helper, lesson room helpers, floaters, dinner/snack helpers, clean up, slide show and photobooth supervisor. Please consider helping the children to have a memorable VBS! Flyers and registration forms are available in the office. Tom & Bonny Peterson.

Cookies For VBS Needed

We need 30 dozen cookies for VBS. We need 10 volunteers to bring 3 dozen each for snacks for the children. No one has signed up yet. Please, please, please signup at the welcome center today.

Décor Shower

A cash only shower is being held to raise funds to refresh the decorations seasonally throughout the building. Everyone is invited to contribute: individuals, shower groups, men's breakfast groups, etc. Please get donations to Heather Wavra White or Karen Akers, no later than June 26. Thank you for contributing to the decoration committee!

VBS Items Needed

We would like boxes for VBS, shoe boxes, Amazon boxes, and bigger, and we need lots of them. Please put them in the coat closet off the lobby. Linda Wentz & Dee Young will collect them.

The Toddler's Creed

Children are special people, especially toddlers. They have a rather unique view of the world. Someone has shared this insight into their thinking, called, "The Toddler's Creed": If I want it, it's mine. If I give it to you and change my mind later, it's mine. If I can take it away from you, it's mine. If I had it a little while ago, it's mine. If it's mine, it will never belong to anyone else, no matter what. If we are building something together, all the pieces are mine. If it looks just like mine, it's mine. Every parent of a toddler knows that this is an accurate description of the world as they see it. While we expect this self-centered trait in toddlers, we find it very repulsive in older children and adults. Many people live almost exclusively for themselves. Extreme self-interest is called "narcissism." The narcissist thinks the world should evolve around them...everyone should focus on them, elevate them, cower to their wants and demands, and yield to their emotional manipulations. Self is at the center of all sin. There is no room on the throne for Christ as long as self is king. Dying to self is essential to serving Christ. The apostle Paul taught that we should "count others better" than ourselves (Philippians 2:3). Sadly, toddlers are not the only ones who suffer from self-centeredness. Our culture worships at the altar of self. Our insatiable demand for fun, entertainment, and comfort leaves us approaching almost every issue with thoughts of how we are affected, not what effect our choices may have on others. Narcissistic Christianity is not Christ-centered, but is self-centered, and will ultimately destroy itself. Al Behel, The Great Smoky Mountains church of Christ, Pigeon Forge, TN

Thank You

A big thank you to GB & Andrea Purcell for installing the handrails along the auditorium stage stairs. The handrails will get plenty of use.
