Let's Go Skating—Tuesday

Bobby & Laurel are inviting everyone to join them on September 13th to skate at Logansport Skate World and Fun Center for their Christian skate event from 5 PM to 8 PM. They charge a $5 entry fee and a $2 skate rental. The church van will leave the building at 5 PM. RSVP with Bobby or Laurel.

Wacky Wednesday's Cozy Camp Circle

The next event, Cozy Camp Circle, will be held on September 21st, from 6-8:00 p.m. We will be sitting around the campfire, cooking hot dogs, playing some outdoor games, making smores and finishing up with songs around the fire together. Please make plans to join us. Also, there are sign-up sheets on the Welcome Center, if you would like to help in that way. We are in need of a bit of firewood and several roasting sticks for that night. Please let me know if you have any for us to borrow. Thanks! Bonny Peterson

Mark Your Calendar

Sunday, September 25th is our "Meet The Preacher/ Friend Day." This is an opportunity for you to invite your friends, family, and former members to hear and meet Bobby and to also meet Laurel and your friends at Center Road. There will be a potluck dinner with grilled hamburgers and hotdogs after Sunday worship service. The church will provide the meat, buns and beverages. Please bring potluck dishes as well as other complimentary food and desserts for our meal. If you are able, please bring extra food for guests. Questions, Mike Miller

The Logic of Humility

Someone once said, "No one stands at the edge of the Grand Canyon and says, 'I am awesome.'" Why not? Because when we are confronted by that which is immense and sublime, we are designed to feel at least two things: (1) our own smallness, and (2) the assurance that something huge and powerful is "out there." Among many other things, this impresses upon me the foolishness of arrogance and the necessity of humility. There is a very real logical basis for being humble. Being humble is logical: "The fear of the Lord is hatred of evil. Pride and arrogance and the way of evil and perverted speech I hate" (Proverbs 8:13). "Everyone who is arrogant in heart is an abomination to the Lord; be assured, he will not go unpunished" (Proverbs 16:5). Arrogance is not only illogical, foolish, unbecoming, and worthy of divine punishment, it is un-Christlike. Jesus was humble: "... Christ Jesus, who, though He was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but emptied Himself, by taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. And being found in human form, He humbled Himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross" (Phil. 2:5-9; cf. Matt. 11:28-30; Rom. 15:3). The consideration of what Jesus has done (sacrificial/atoning death and resurrection), is doing (ruling and interceding), and will do (return in judgment) should humble us! It should drive us to our knees in heartfelt and humble praise and adoration! Likewise, we are called to be humble. "Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility count others more significant than yourselves. Let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interests of others" (Phil. 2:3-4). "Clothe yourselves, all of you, with humility toward one another, for 'God opposes the proud but gives grace to the humble.' Humble yourselves under the mighty hand of God so that at the proper time He may exalt you" (1 Peter 5:5b-6; cf. Rom. 12:3). To stand before the Grand Canyon in arrogance is foolish. To stand before God or neighbor in arrogance is un-Christlike. Being humble makes sense. Being humble makes us more like Jesus. Let us be reminded of the logic of humility. Bart Warren, South Green Street church of Christ, Glasgow, KY
