Wacky Wednesday—This Week

We are having our Cozy Camp Circle this Wednesday, September 13th starting at 5:30 p.m. We will begin set-up at 4:30, moving tables and chairs out to the east part of the property and setting up games. Please come and bring lawn chairs and roasting sticks to share. Also, plan to visit with our guests and show them what love looks like. This is a great opportunity to be like Jesus. Food will be provided. If you would like to donate money for food, you can give it to a Peterson or any elder. Thanks!

Name Tags

We have had a number of visitors and new attendees during the past 4 or 5 months. Recently one regular attendee requested that we wear name tags, so they can quickly call us by name. We plan to try a stick-on tag that we hand write our first name. The nametags will be available at our welcome center. Please help us, as we help our visitors and new attendees be more comfortable in our worship and fellowship assemblies.

Sayings People Mistake for Scripture

"God helps those who help themselves." Dear Algernon Sydney and Benjamin Franklin, thanks for this. Did you know that when you penned and uttered these words that they would become a bully stick for many in the church? Probably not. Still, the sentiment that God only helps those who help themselves has caused much damage, not only in churches but in society in general. And the sentiment at its core goes against Scripture. If God only helps those who help themselves, then why did He send Jesus to the cross to reconcile us to Himself? Or why did Jesus say the poor would always be with us? Why are we called to those who are destitute, the widow and the orphan, if they just need to help themselves? Certainly, we must hold people accountable as we offer help, but our requirement to help is not predicated on our ascertaining of their ability to do for themselves. — Carrie Kintz, edited by Bobby Price
